A revolution headed by ex Vice President Urbanna, has broken out in Ecuador.

The war steamer Veua was captured by a number of armed men on board the steamer Washington, the latter's vessel floating down under pretense that the current carried her. The commander of the Veua was killed.

Governor's Address to the People of Georgia.

NEW YORK, July 12th.—James Johnson, Provisional Governor of Georgia, in his address to the people of Savannah, admonishes them to recognize and look squarely in the face of the great changes in affairs which have been produced by the war, to take the oath prescribed, with earnestness and sincerity, to renew allegiance and go to work manfully and with a will, to rehabilitate their commonwealth once more, in the great sisterhood of the Union. He called their attention particularly to the fact that whether they liked it or not, slavery in their State was gone and could not be restored.

Rebels Going to Brazil.

NEW YORK, June 12th.—The Herald's Richmond correspondent learns that M. F. Maury, recently of the rebel navy, is on his way from Brazil, with a plan of emigration from the South to that country, which is said to be very encouraging. The Emperor has agreed to donate one thousand acres of land to each actual settler. Maury is understood to have obtained additional terms which render the inducement to emigrate stronger.

The Herald's special dispatch says: The belief is gaining ground here that President Johnson will recommend to the next Congress in his first message that unless the States agree to embody in their new Constitutions a provision for universal suffrage they should not be admitted; that in determining the qualifications of members from the Southern States entering, Congress will require in respect to all classes in the South a rigid indorsement of all the changes which have rendered existing laws and proclamations necessary.

Disorganization in Virginia.

NEW YORK, July 12.—The Richmond Whig says that in six counties through which its informant passed there were but nine negroes at work, but the county court houses and villages are full of them. NEW YORK, July 11.—New Orleans papers of the 4th contain the following: It is said that the late rebel portion of the Cherokee [illegible] Texas are in great distress and near starvation. Their Chief, Stand Watie, who held a [illegible] Brig.-General in the late rebel army, has issued an appeal to the people of Texas for assistance.

NEW ORLEANS, July 4.—Gen. [illegible] had issued an order notifying refugees from Texas that the U. S. troops were now in possession of that State, and that they can return to their homes with [illegible] and resume the possession of their property. The order also notifies the people of Texas that no home guards or armed bands for self protection will be permitted in the State, as the military forces of the United States will be sufficient to protect their persons and property. All acts of the Legislature of Texas since the passage of the ordinance of secession are declared illegal.

NEW YORK, July 11.—The Herald's Washington special says: A report has been received at the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen and abandoned lands on the subject of outrages committed upon [illegible] by rebel States; that prior to the [illegible] of our troops through the interior of the South, many slaves were hunted and shot down and left in the woods, while endeavoring to reach our lines. This accounts for their bodies being found there, but since the [illegible] of hostilities this [illegible] has been stopped. There are still known instances of cruelty, but the [illegible] to be willing to obey the authority of the United States.

The Tribune's special says: The Freedmen's Bureau has refused to restore to [illegible] their [illegible] and abandoned lands set apart by Gen. [illegible] for the use of freedmen and refugees, and have finally concluded to leave the whole [illegible] to the decision of the Courts. Cases of inhumanity to negroes are continually reported to Gen. Howard, especially in the interior of the Southern States. Planters have [illegible] to administer one to three hundred lashes to their former slaves of both sexes.

NEW YORK, July 1[illegible].—The [illegible] says Mrs. Douglas, widow of the late [illegible], made two personal attempts to obtain from the President a [illegible] for Mrs. Surratt, and in each case she was denied. A very bitter feeling in relation to her execution exists among [illegible], particularly among the Catholics of the city, who, it is rumored, intend to call a meeting for the purpose of [illegible] the action of the military commanders.

The [illegible] of Owyhee.

RUBY CITY, July 5, 1865.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

In my last I promised to give a [illegible] of the Owyhee mines, or such of them as came under my personal observation in the [illegible] mining districts constituting a portion of the Owyhee region. Since writing, I have visited the [illegible], Carson, Flint, Mammoth, and Steele districts with the view of determining whether an investment of capital would eventually prove remunerative, and from examination made on the different and perfectly—at present—developed mines, I am induced to believe that no better channel can be found for a judicious investment, resulting eventually in enormous profits. By this I do not wish to be understood as endorsing every mine, so called, in the country as good and likely to prove lucrative. On the contrary there are mines here, as in all mining sections, not worth a day's work on them, but in every mining region having an established reputation abroad, people labor under the erroneous impression "that everything goes," but all miners judge of these matters differently. What I may conceive as unprofitable after many years experience, others may view in a different light, particularly, parties interested. On the other hand, I can safely say, that having no sinister motives to gratify, being solely a disinterested outsider, I am able to judge dispassionately.

I have stated above "imperfectly developed." With the exception of the Morning Star and Oro Fino nothing comparatively has been done in a legitimate manner to determine the value of mining claims. A vast amount of time and labor have been consumed in digging [illegible], "cost [illegible]," across the lodes, and working pits from two to ten and fourteen feet deep. The only end attained by such work is to [illegible] the continuity of the lodes, and their apparent "dip." The croppings vary in width ranging from eight inches to twelve or fourteen feet; in the French, Carson and Flint district being bold and [illegible], while in the Mammoth and Steele they are much larger, projecting above the surface twelve or fifteen feet—the monuments of centuries from which the soil by atmospheric and other influences have passed away leaving them as landmarks for the cupidity of man in his researches for the wealth which is below them.

The Oro Fino and Morning Star are exceptions, and I may add others. The first is strictly a gold and silver mine, silver being sulphurets. The Morning Star contains gold, ruby, silver, chlo bromide and polybasite. These two mines being further developed than any others have indisputably proved to be immensely rich in the above, thus giving character to the district for wealth. Capital is all that is necessary to place many of the others on a similar basis, the want of it is the chief cause why so little has been done, nevertheless the holders of these properties appear contented, determined to "hold on," trusting, no doubt, that without effort on their part, some miraculous interposition will eventually take place in their behalf, and establish them as millionaires. Speculators have rushed in here, and thousands of feet the bulk of which are not worth a day's rations, have been taken to New York, the good and bad have been mixed indiscriminately to give tone to their operation, while others having nothing to lose but all to gain, have in many instances "jumped" good lodes in the absence of the lawful proprietors.

This is what injures the interests of any mining region, as capital once deceived, loses confidence. Among the most promising mines here, apart from the Oro Fino and Morning Star that I have visited, I will cite a few, viz: A portion of the north and south extensions of the Oro Fino and Morning Star, the Silver Legion, Calavera, Black Eagle, War Eagle, Hamilton, Yreka, Whisky Gulch, Home Ticket, Mary Blane, and others whose names I do not recall at present. These are chiefly in the Carson and French district. In the Flint district on the Rochester, Owyhee and Idaho, Gen. U. S. Grant, Virginia City, Washoe, Twilight, Black Warrior and Rising Star. But little work has been done on the above, but sufficient to determine that they bid fair to dispute the prize of wealth with any mine in Owyhee. On the Rochester, Owyhee and Idaho, Twilight and Grant, the sulphurets of silver are seen on the surface with wide, prominent out crops—veins nearly vertical. In the Mammoth and Star districts, the lodes are larger, but they carry in excess the baser metals, rendering the separation one of great difficulty in a region where labor is high. The general course of the [illegible] of veins are north and south, and [illegible] dip easterly of from five to twenty five degrees [illegible] in a vertical line eastward in granite, occasionally the country rock on one side will have a grayish slate and granite on the other, the [illegible] veins predominate [illegible] miners [illegible] then in their intersection with the main lodes prove extremely rich in the precious metals, hence the importance attached to them.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE

SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 2[illegible] 1865

The Reconstruction Policy.

We notice that some querulous people of doubtful loyalty and [illegible] are beginning to complain that the [illegible] armies are not at once withdrawn from the late revolted States and the whole machinery of local government put in the hands of the recently rebellious people. There is no absurdity in arguing that this could be safely done. At present the Southern States are utterly disorganized. There are no State Government that can be put in operation. Hence it is incumbent on the General Government, both for its own safety and that of the people of the disorganized States to take such measures as will steady and render secure a completely disrupted society until such a time as the people may be so far unstanced that they will no longer require either control or protection by any power other than their own.

An opportunity must be afforded the Southern people to eradicate the evil influences which are still kept alive in most sections of this country by men who continue to adhere to the destructive doctrines of secession. Loyalty must be aided and the disloyal kept in subjection until a National sentiment can have time to supplant the vicious ideas that have so long prevailed in the South. To give these States at once into the control of those who have been accustomed to manage their policy and prescribe their course would be a most unwise thing. It would be a practical abandonment of all the good results which have accrued by the war. Men would be sent to Congress who would come with their hands imbued with the blood of our slaughtered countrymen. Aided by factionists a powerful party would soon soon arise which would gradually acquire control of every department of the Government, and under the lead of men who would feel the sting of past defeats a new conflict would be precipitated. We are not to deride this probability. All assumed that the great war which we have passed through would never be [illegible]. In certain contingencies, it is not unlikely that the struggle might be renewed.

The South [illegible] cannot be safely left to the [illegible] until a true Union sentiment shall have time to grow. When loyalty at home shall become powerful enough to protect the States against the present disaffected majority there will be no [illegible] maintaining a military force in any quarter. It is due to the loyal men in those States to see that they are not opp[illegible] by their opponents. In pursuing its present course in relation to this [illegible], the Government is merely doing that with [illegible] all its previous efforts to re-establish its [illegible] in the revolted States would fail to secure [illegible].

AN [illegible] OF HUMILITY.—Robert E. Lee and A. [illegible] have both been reduced to the [illegible] necessity of begging for pardon for the [illegible] they have committed against the Government. Not long ago they sent petitions to W[illegible] supplicatingly that they might be forgiven. How are they who wickedly essayed to [illegible] by the [illegible] of lawless acts, [illegible] brought low. These [illegible] who for a long time [illegible] the magnitude of their [illegible], and who with overweening presumption [illegible] with disdain, now [illegible] that their ignoble lives may be yet for a little while prolonged. In suing for pardon, they [illegible] down from that high station of [illegible] merit which they [illegible] to occupy [illegible] world, to the [illegible] condition of those who, by [illegible] acknowledge [illegible] guilty of the [illegible] they are [illegible] over their traitorous [illegible] to the world for the [illegible] of their [illegible] they undertook to subvert the G[illegible]. And since by [illegible] selves to have been [illegible], it will be well to [illegible] on this [illegible] to apply in their case the [illegible] which the law has [illegible] known as a [illegible] for this [illegible].

INDIAN DEPREDATIONS.—Capt. John Mullan [illegible], from his camp near the O[illegible], that the [illegible] are up in arms [illegible] between there and [illegible]. He [illegible] the following account of [illegible] by them in several [illegible].

An [illegible] has just reached camp, bringing news [illegible] command, with a large number of Snake Indians, at the head of the [illegible] river. The soldiers killed four Indians, [illegible] and captured fifteen horses. The [illegible] had two men [illegible] and lost two [illegible]. The Indians have complete [illegible] of [illegible]. They attacked a train in Paulin Valley, [illegible] two men and [illegible] one. One of the men had his head cut off and [illegible] through his mouth and [illegible] his legs and arms were cut off, [illegible] and hung at the [illegible] burned. The news [illegible] the train was struck [illegible] and capturing [illegible].

[illegible] yesterday for [illegible] through, and it was [illegible] them, for the [illegible] are not here to speak. [illegible] driven off the road fifty [illegible] stolen—and with the [illegible] to leave the line.

PARDON [illegible].—A. O. P. Nicholson, one of the U. S. Senators from Tennessee at the beginning of the rebellion, is now pleading most piteously for pardon. In company with other rebels, he withdrew from the Senate early in 1861, but now claims that he took no part in the war against the Union. This "patriot" like many of his class actually has the effrontery to demand his "arrearages" from the Government. He puts in a claim for pay for the remainder of his 6 years' term from the the time when he rebelliously left his seat over four years ago. What [illegible] sum it will take to pay the salaries of these "Confederate" officers during the long [illegible] of their service in the South!

HOOKER VINDICATED.—The charge that Gen. Hooker was drunk at the battle of Chancellorsville, has been investigated by the Congressional Committee, and wholly refuted. The loss of the battle is attributed to the failure of subordinates to perform the parts assigned them. It is likely too, that Halleck was then, as usual, in fault. Gen. Hooker has borne the imputation of unsoldierly [illegible] at that battle, with extraordinary forbearance. Other officers might have profited by his example. His character and conduct are vindicated at last, and his devotion to his country during its perils, will ensure him the esteem of all who can appreciate patriotic valor.

IN DISGRACE.—In consequence of his Ajaccio speech, Prince Napoleon has fallen into disgrace with that most august despot the Emperor. The Moniteur publishes a letter bearing the imperial signature, addressed to the Prince, in which his speech is subjected to severe censure and disapprobation. The Prince curtly rejoins by a note in which he resigns the Presidency of the Privy Council. It appears that the Ajaccio speech was an expression of views too liberal in their character to please the great magnate of despotism.

The New York Tribune says that orders for the arrest of Ben Wood were telegraphed from Washington on the 15th of June. Ben Wood is the [illegible] of the News of New York, the most intensely secession sheet that has survived the rebellion.

Secretary McCulloch reports that the entire National Debt now amounts to $2,63[illegible] 20[illegible] 7[illegible]3 50.

MANNER OF MITCHEL'S ARREST.—The New York [illegible] the [illegible] that [illegible] John Mitchel was [illegible].

[illegible] Mitchel [illegible] recently [illegible] lay arrested upon the [illegible] we understand that he has been sent to Fortress Monroe on the charge of treason.

At about mid-day two military officers soon paused by let [illegible] entered the [illegible] of the Daily News, Benjamin Wood was the first person [illegible] for John Mitchel [illegible] justly a [illegible] to the coach which [illegible] waiting at the door.

Mitchel [illegible] taken one of the officers accompanying him [illegible].

Captain from your name I [illegible].

[illegible]

Mr. M[illegible] Of [illegible] also how can you find it in your heart to arrest one of your fellow countrymen.

Captain C.—I am now an American. I [illegible] more my fellow countryman than anybody else. I only know that we have orders to arrest you.

Mr. M.—[illegible] what?

Captain C.—I don't know [illegible].

Mr. M.—But I am not a traitor [illegible].

Captain C. (with emphasis)—Mr. [illegible] have no time to [illegible]. You are an Irishman. I am ashamed to say. You pretended to flee from the oppression of the Old World to the freedom of the New, yet almost your first act in your new found liberty was to declare yourself in favor of a species of human bondage the meanest [illegible] for that alone you [illegible] with brand and brawn for five years [illegible] have the audacity to [illegible] New York and establish yourself as the head of the most ultra [illegible] street in the city. I can [illegible] that is [illegible] and that my own [illegible] that I can find no [illegible] further expressing [illegible].

Mitchel's face worked convulsively as he listened to this answer but he said nothing more.

LAMENTATION.—Some of the English papers are only distressed when they contemplate the surely impending fate of Jeff. Davis. Their appeals for mercy are so [illegible] that we may [illegible] understand how firmly their hearts were set in favor of his cause. We are informed that the actors in the great rebellion [illegible] scheme they undertook are not [illegible] dealt with as felons, and that they have [illegible] ted no crime. Happily we do not have to depend on the English press for an exposition of our law of treason. The subjoined words of mingled admiration and sorrow for Jeff. Davis are from the London Post:

The pistol shot of Wilkes Booth struck Lincoln senseless at the very moment when he was congratulating himself on the success of the policy which for four long years he had prosecuted in the teeth of the protest of the entire world, and he did not experience the pain which would have been brought by the consciousness of not being permitted to complete the work which had to all appearances brought so near to a conclusion. But the fate of the Confederate President is far worse. Elected as the Chief Magistrate of six millions of people, he achieved for himself and for them during the period in which he held his high office, a fame in the presence of which that of his Northern rival must pale. In the space of a few short years he helped to found a republic which possessed within itself all the elements of commercial strength and political greatness, and which, but for the undying animosity of foes whose prowess proved irresistible, would probably in time have become one of the most powerful commonwealths in the world. With the great ness ephemeral though it was of the Southern Confederacy, the name of its only President will ever be associated, and to impartial minds it will always occur that the absence of that most material element of all human undertakings, success will alone prevent Jefferson Davis taking his place in after time by the side of George Washington. A few months since many, indeed we think we may say the majority, would have regarded as a greater object of pride the position occupied by Davis in Richmond than that filled by Lincoln in Washington. The one, however is now in his grave, and the other a prisoner in the hands of his enemies, who whatever may be the course which they will ultimately pursue declare they will show him no mercy.

WHAT WENDELL PHILLIPS DID SAY.—A few weeks ago Wendell Phillips was reported to have said in a speech in Boston that if, in the plan of reconstruction, universal suffrage were not granted, he would favor the repudiation of the National Debt. What he did say is a very different thing, as the following letter from himself clearly shows:

BOSTON, June 14 1865.

To the Editors of the New York Evening Post:

I thank you heartily for the generosity with which you have treated me the last ten days. For your satisfaction—publish it or not as you please—I submit this statement, covering all I have ever said on the subject of repudiation.

Half a dozen times during the last two years I have said that if the rebel States were reconstructed on the basis of white suffrage, their representatives in Congress, allied with our Copperheads, would attempt to repudiate the whole national debt, unless their rebel debt were assumed by us, a statement no intelligent man will question.

On the 29th of last May, at the meeting here of the Emancipation League, I stated that in my opinion, the North Carolina plan of reconstruction was a fraud on the nation; that it would result in a party aiming to repudiate the national debt, which party, I believed, would gather into its ranks a large portion of the so called Democratic party and that if I had ever been a Democrat or had ever held their views as to national debts I would join such a new party.

At the New England Anti Slavery Convention held the 31st day of last May I said exactly what you have quoted from the Anti Slavery Standard, and no more, to wit: that I should hold myself at liberty, like to advocate the repudiation of any rebel debts no matter how sacredly or formally assumed by any Congress containing rebel States reconstructed on a white basis. Some journals term this trivial and a "windmill." It may be so. But I gain by this proclamation in advance the right to repudiate in all time hereafter under all circumstances such assumption of rebel debts. Whether this prove a trivial right or not time will show. I can wait its verdict. Meantime I trust the country will do its duty so faithfully that I shall never need to exercise my right.

Respectfully and gratefully yours,

WENDELL PHILLIPS.

COMPENSATION.—The London Times, it appears is not disposed to assert unqualifiedly that our claims on England for indemnification must not be paid; on the contrary that great paper deals rather tenderly with the subject, as if in fear its Government will take a position in relation to the debt they owe us from which it will be necessary ere long to retract. Evidently John Bull has a much greater respect for us than he had a little while ago when he gleefully exclaimed that the bubble had burst, and when he drew deep satisfaction from the contemplation of the supposition that he would have no rival thereafter on this side of the Atlantic. The Times now discusses our claims in such words as these:

The time has now come for a more just appreciation of each others motives and qualities, and if the nationality of the [illegible] and our liability for her acts should be made the subject of negotiation we may hope that legal principles rather than popular passion will govern and determine it. [illegible] solves many [illegible] against the United States for arbitrary [illegible] of the right of blockade and search. It also will have to be examined at the same time and as we are perfectly unconscious of hostile intentions in urging them we decline to infer such intentions from the mere renewal of an outstanding demand which we believe to be unfounded.

THE NORTHERN TELEGRAPH.—We learn that the steamer George S. Wright, of the Overland Telegraph, arrived at Victoria on Thursday last with Col. Bulkley and party. She will proceed up the coast in a few days. The work of putting up the telegraph is going on with rapidity.

John P. Hale, of New Hampshire, the newly appointed Minister to Spain, sailed for Liverpool en route for Madrid, on the 21st June.

[illegible] of the Common Council. — The regular weekly [illegible] of the Common Council was held at the Chamber [illegible], at 8½ o'clock, in the absence of Mayor [illegible] Susan McCraken called the meeting to order [illegible] President pro tem. [illegible] Clerk of the Council being absent, Councilman [illegible] was chosen Clerk, pro tem. [illegible] members were present: Messrs. Clarke, [illegible] Ladd, McCraken, Morgan, Pl[illegible], [illegible], Schuyler and Starr. [illegible] motion the reading of the minutes of the previous [illegible] was suspended. [illegible] signed by 158 persons, relative to the sale of [illegible] asking for its amendment, was referred. [illegible] Hook and Ladder Company asking [illegible] on a footing with other fire companies [illegible] petition was referred to the [illegible] petitions [illegible] was authorized to extend the Columbia [illegible] also the Montgomery street culvert, [illegible] in order that persons interested may grade the [illegible].

[illegible] from E. W. Nottage, relating to [illegible] on Front Street, was referred.

The committee on streets and public property submitted [illegible] of City Attorney and a report on the petition of Joseph Knott for relief, in consequence of the filling of [illegible] street at the crossing of Salmon.

The communication of the City Attorney, after investigating the subject, shows that the license of Mr. Knott [illegible] the street down, in 1861, was a resolution and [illegible] of the Council, and in his opinion revocable by the [illegible], as that body could not grant or convey the same to interfere with public convenience.

[illegible] was adopted and the accompanying [illegible] ordered on file.

The committee on health and police reported on the matter of a cemetery purchase, exhibiting a plat of [illegible] acres of ground near East Portland, in their opinion well [illegible] to the purpose, which can be obtained for the sum of [illegible],000, of Mr. C. Barrell. The subject in question was laid on the table to await the Judiciary committee's [illegible] on the matter of the Terwilliger [illegible].

[illegible] for the following purposes were passed: To [illegible] the duties and salary of the Street Commissioner; to authorize the construction of two brick cisterns at the crossing of Third and Jefferson, and at the crossing of [illegible] and Stark, each to contain 2,8[illegible] gallons; To [illegible] cows and other animals, wearing bells, from running at large within the city limits.

[illegible] the Council adjourned.

[illegible] FOR THE COWS. — We have received a communication [illegible] "A plea for the cows," but it is not [illegible] Since the action of the Council [illegible] that there are many needed reforms in the [illegible] of the city. The merchants [illegible] of the upper part of Front street, and portions of [illegible] are greatly in the habit of [illegible] from day to day, rendering them almost impassable, [illegible] we shall have wider sidewalks. Twelve feet [illegible] them a better opportunity [illegible] and allow a free passage [illegible] if the latter should feel disposed [illegible] to bloomer costume, and [illegible] greater display of feminine apparel [illegible] being done to a great extent in the East, we are [illegible] by a gentleman who lately arrived in the [illegible] may be of advantage to them [illegible] in Portland. But for fear this cannot be done, [illegible] like to see the merchants compelled to remove [illegible] boxes, dripping sugar kegs and greasy [illegible] inside of six hours on every occasion. That [illegible] exist a want for an efficient [illegible] ordinance [illegible] experience, and the broken down [illegible] planted to adorn many a dwelling in this city, [illegible] enough. We have not the least objection to [illegible] keeping a cow, or four of them if they choose [illegible] what we most desire to see is: "Those who attempt [illegible] cows and do not keep them, compelled by law to [illegible]" — in other language, let each owner restrain [illegible] cow, prevent her from damaging his neighbor [illegible] her at night, and driving her from [illegible] the morning after "milking-time." The city [illegible] called upon to enforce the ordinance, and we [illegible] can be attached to him for doing what is [illegible] by the authorities.

[illegible] — Tenant wants to know when a [illegible] and asks: 1st, is the [illegible] there [illegible] to it 2d, no water on the premises or in the [illegible] door-yards; 3d, no road-way leading to it [illegible] of any consequence. This depends upon the [illegible]. On First street, for instance, in Portland, [illegible] not be valid. The courts have decided that [illegible] cannot be fit for an occupant unless it can [illegible] and the Judge held that water being essential [illegible] preservation of health, and that the [illegible] being "one of the first laws of nature," [illegible] without water would be untenable. As to [illegible] or it might not be appreciable in the [illegible] but those were "chances" taken at the [illegible] who, on the principle of Hoyle, had [illegible] and ran his chances when he rented [illegible] we think any house in Portland [illegible] our correspondent's anxiety may rest at [illegible].

[illegible]. — Governor Bross was met at the [illegible] day, in company with Mr. Colfax and the [illegible] accompanied them to the Upper Columbia, by [illegible] Fargo & Co.'s [illegible] having in charge the [illegible] from our inexhaustible gold fields, and [illegible] at lifting the treasure, between two [illegible] weighing 100 pounds each, he and a [illegible] will [illegible] return to his home in Illinois [illegible] with the weight as well as the value of [illegible].

[illegible] has secured photographs of [illegible] Colfax, Lieut. Gov. Bross, Messrs. Bowles [illegible] that our people may have an opportunity [illegible] of the distinguished editors with [illegible] group [illegible] gentlemen, together with one of Mr. [illegible] of Mr. Bross, large size.

[illegible] a convict named John Smit, recently [illegible] in this city for "rolling" a Policeman, [illegible] from the gang which was at work [illegible] (Mount Robinson) road, [illegible] south [illegible] of the city. [illegible] Shaw, [illegible] to any one who will [illegible].

[illegible] ODD FELLOWSHIP. — On Thursday evening [illegible] visited the lodge of Odd Fellows in [illegible] upon it the degree of Rebeka, [illegible] the [illegible] of some fifteen years [illegible] to the lodge room by a committee [illegible] and was warmly welcomed. The meeting [illegible] an exceedingly pleasant one.

[illegible] some of the most violent attacks [illegible] have made people sick in this city [illegible] to do with the matter, we believe [illegible] is directly traceable to [illegible] the newly opened fruits. A word of [illegible] at this time.

[illegible] as we were going to [illegible] Charles [illegible] of news upon our table. Taking a [illegible] Journal, [illegible] by J. M. Sherwood, the Atlantic [illegible] Weekly papers from New York, [illegible].

[illegible] Colfax party were to be at Dalles [illegible] The City Council has made preparation to [illegible] extend to them the hospitalities of the [illegible] of citizens met them at the Cascades [illegible] the purpose of escorting them to the city.

[illegible] — Constable Meagher will offer for sale [illegible] east of this city, six head of estray [illegible] will go to assist in tending the [illegible] in accordance with the statutes [illegible].

[illegible] — Wells, Fargo & Co. brought an express [illegible] by a very heavy treasure [illegible] The [illegible] informs us that the value of [illegible] brought down was between $[illegible],000 to $[illegible],000.

[illegible] — Three cases of assault were examined [illegible] Justice Anderson and one of the defendants [illegible] costs. These suits are [illegible] business is being done in the courts.

[illegible] Hall and Hayward's Concert for [illegible] evening next, at the Lincoln House, is postponed [illegible] of the ill health of Mr. Hayward.

[illegible] — A returned rebel soldier from the armies of the "great Southern Confederacy," reached his home in Havre de Grace, on Thursday last [illegible] neighbors and fellow-citizens tendered [illegible] hospitality and freedom of the town to him, [illegible] to his back with "traitor" written [illegible] large letters, marched the returned [illegible] put him on the cars. [illegible] have [illegible] of the Southern chivalry [illegible] to [illegible] Abolitionists and ride [illegible] on a rail. — [illegible]

[illegible] FOR THE TEETH. — The fragrant [illegible] appears to have taken a very prominent [illegible] the most approved dentifrices [illegible] very popular article for the [illegible] all who have used [illegible] of the teeth, [illegible] mouth, sweetening the [illegible] arrest [illegible] decay, and otherwise benefit [illegible] user. — Boston Traveler.

Brandreth's Pills — Their Qualities. — In small and repeated doses the effect of Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills is to increase the activity of the secreting and excreting organs. The atoms discharged become more liquid and contain a larger proportion of bile. The operation of this extraordinary medicine does not stop here; the membranes of the lungs, of the eyes, and all the membranes become moister; the skin becomes damper and at the same time warmer where too cool, and cooler if too warm. So that Brandreth's Pills seem to vitalize and promote excretions generally. In large doses, say from five to ten Pills, they act as a powerful purgative, cleaning the bowels first of their contents, and then acting upon the internal organs, cleansing them of slime, mucus, or any concretions not required for their healthy action. Thus the action of Brandreth's Pills is what is required to bring about that state in all the organs which result in their full restoration to health. The blood vessels, as well as the blood, are thus restored to perfect purity and vigor.

A Lot of Mormon Immigrants.—During the week [illegible] Castle Garden [illegible] to Mormonism who arrived by the ship B[illegible] from Liverpool, under the supervision of Elder Sherman, and were received at Castle Garden by Elder Taylor, the General Agent in the [illegible]. Taylor was formerly the head of the Mormon Emigration Bureau in London. [illegible] was one of many in the world, where there are now upwards of 150 missionaries constantly at work. The immigrants just arrived have been converted and baptized during the last two [illegible] there are now en route [illegible] Hamburg [illegible] North Germans [illegible] white Africans from Port [illegible]. The latter will almost have circumnavigated the globe when they shall have reached their new homes at Deseret. Elder Taylor says that 100,000 European immigrants have been brought here during the 25 years in which the "Saints" have preached the gospel according to Joe Smith. The immigration this year will not be so great as during the last three years. The Elder says that no ship with Mormon women has ever been cast away, and that the chosen [illegible] have no fears of any such casualty. The chief of the proselytization in Europe is Elder Daniel H. Wells, an American. He directs the star of empire, and is looked upon as a very remarkable [illegible].

The present lot of redeemed people came over at the small charge per capita of about $20 apiece. Each one pays his own fare to this point, and many of them have secured homes and husbands in advance at Salt Lake, to which they will be forwarded by the People's Line of steamers to Albany, thence by Suspension Bridge, Detroit and Chicago to Hannibal and St. Joseph, and thence by river [illegible] trains will cross the prairies to the promised land. The Mormon government we understand is at the expense of $18 a head to get them out to Deseret. This is the cheapest [illegible] it has been our privilege to see, and the fact accounts for the ease with which so many can be kept going by one man. They will be eleven weeks on the way, and a number of cockney youths among them who expected to shoot buffaloes on the Battery may gratify their carnivorous aspirations on the march.

Elder Taylor says that very few of these immigrants die—seldom so many as five percent of a cargo. They are cleanly in their habits, he says, and pray often, and, it may be added, are so curious to see the New Jerusalem that their curiosity keeps them alive till they reach it. The mass of the people seem to be profoundly ignorant, and the most of them seemed more inspired by the idea of bettering their material than their moral condition. Old age was not behind in numbers. There was an old lady in her 80th year among these chosen people. She wore double glasses, but hopped around very actively, and like the woman in the miracle, carried her own bed. What object this old creature could have in traveling 6,000 miles it is hard to say. It is to be observed that the Mormon elders make very few converts in the United States at present. The public mind has become very well informed as to their social and political shortcomings, so they draw their raw levies from abroad. The scene of these zealots huddled upon the shelving slope and along the great floor of the dim round building, was like a beggar's pantomime. They chatted in an orderly way together, and ate their sausage and brown bread with high zest, and the young and the old mixed up together, with women in grey hairs and women in soft faces, and women with babes at the breast, and creeping children and one-legged zealots, and girls in faded finery made a tout ensemble like Rag Fair. There, on the spot where Jenny Lind's sweet notes rang like a lark's in a barn, and Fanny Elssler made mutton music, these worn and hopeful people, with the ocean behind them, looked to the desert before, and departed to swell that strange and zealot civilization for which the decency of mankind forbids charity, and which must be scattered if it cannot be annihilated.—N. Y. World.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

Portland, July 21st, 1865.

Financial matters [illegible] unchanged—the want of capital is being sadly felt. The rate of interest is still maintained at 1½@2½ per cent. per month, and money is very tight. We have no transactions to note before the Stock and Exchange Board during the period under review.

We have been greatly [illegible] during the few days past, by the presence of Speaker Colfax of Indiana and other distinguished gentlemen from the East. They look upon the interests of Oregon in a [illegible] light from that commonly heretofore. The fact that our commercial wants have never been fully understood, they appear to realize; and if we are not mistaken Oregon will profit by their visit to these shores, in a ratio quite proportionate to her value with the material interests of other portions of the country. The party leave on Monday, going to Victoria thence to San Francisco.

The interests of our mines, and their value to the whole country is becoming more generally known. Ideas are brightening in respect to them, and while it is certain that their value to us locally is not what it ought to be, yet our people are beginning to see the proper channels through which to divert the resources, more to the advancement of the entire coast. The work of internal improvements by the erection of manufactories, the encouragement of a more permanent population for the advancement of our [illegible] interests, and the laying of a [illegible] upon which to build future prosperity, is attracting great attention. Most people began in this country with scant means, and [illegible] operations have been astonishing, when the rate of interest which has been paid in most branches of business is taken into account. Interest has fallen, however, with great rapidity in the last ten years, and the joint products of labor and capital are still productive of capital; yet in proportion to its accumulation there is a much greater breadth for its employment. We want not only the profits on our transactions within [illegible] parts of the country left to us, but we must endeavor to produce more for ourselves.

The exports of the past week are scarcely worth mentioning, aside from the [illegible] shipments of the Brother Jonathan on the 14th, amounting to $282,651 57. The schooner Alfred Crosby took to Victoria an assorted cargo of produce, valued at about $6,000. Two vessels cleared from this port to-day, one for Honolulu and the other for San Francisco. The Jane A. Falk[illegible] being badly damaged as will be seen by [illegible] to the marine report, will not be able to sail for at least two or three weeks.

The importations of the week have been quite large, especially in the products of the Sandwich Islands. The Cambridge br[illegible] a valuable cargo.

The most startling [illegible] have reached us during the week concerning the movements of the pirate Shenandoah. It seems that she has secured a pilot who is somewhat acquainted with the shipping of the Pacific, and is making sad havoc among our commerce. The rates of insurance on our coasters have not advanced in consequence, as the war risks are excepted. Freights on Bullion by steamers of the California Steam Navigation Company have been reduced to ⅞ ₩ cent. and primage, instead of ⅞ ₩ cent. as heretofore.

Wholesale and Jobbing Prices.

Portland, July 21st, 1865.

The markets remain very much the same as for a month past. No product of any consequence is coming in. No changes are made in previous quotations.

Grain of all kinds is in fair demand. Oats has a tendency to advance. Wheat is in steady demand.

Flour has been more active, and there has been numerous sales during the week of old prices, for shipment to the mining regions. There is a preference for Oregon brands made of old wheat, which gives the article sale at present rates, also prices could not be maintained, as we hear of large importations by steamer from California which will be laid down at less figures than those at which Oregon flour is held. At least 1000 bbls., we are informed, will arrive by the Sierra Nevada to-morrow. Transportations in other varieties of produce are exceedingly limited.

Gentlemen: [illegible] made by Mr. Lillie [illegible] purchase [illegible]

So Called "Fire Proof Safes."

On the 18th of February last, a fire occurred in our block which destroyed a number of buildings, and our [illegible] We trusted our books, papers, and [illegible] After the fire the so-called safe was taken from the ruins, and on opening it we found that Everything had been Destroyed.

We send you the safe, with what is left of the papers, and you will see that not one of them is legible or strong enough to sustain its own weight. Having the curiosity to know how our neighbors fared in this fire, we noticed Messrs. [illegible] & Hardy just opening their safe (TILTON & McFARLAND'S make) and the contents were found to be

In Perfect Condition.

This led us to further investigation, and we found to our astonishment that from the large amount of combustible material in Messrs. McK. & H.'s cellar—such as lard, pork, etc.—their safe was subjected to a much greater heat than that of our own, we being in the cloth ing business and had but little in the cellar. There was another of Lillie's safes here subjected to the same fire [illegible] however, no better than ours.

Yours respectfully,
Your obedient servants,
(Signed) GEO. L. CHESBORO & CO.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES!

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

617 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned to this State, after an absence of one year, during which time he has visited all the principal hospitals of Europe, among them those of Dublin, London and Paris. The following celebrated hospitals of London are among those visited by the Doctor: Guy's, High street, Borough; St. Bartholomew's, Smithfield; St. Mary's, Lamb Place, Pad.; Lock, Harrow road; St. Luke's, Old street; University, Gower street; Westminster, Broad Sanctuary; Charing Cross, Agar street, Strand; London, Whitechapel road; Royal Free, Gray's Inn road; King's College, Portugal street.

DOCTOR GIBBON has also visited Doctors Acton of London, Parker of Birmingham, England, and Ricord of Paris; who are considered the best physicians and surgeons in the world, and whose authority is acknowledged to be the highest in the treatment of Sexual Di[illegible]

DOCTOR GIBBON has obtained from them their new mode of treatment which cannot be surpassed.

DOCTOR GIBBON has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with new facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions; disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. It therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Doctor Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Prevention Better than Cure.

The newly invented Patent French Safe, a sure Preventive against Diseases and Pregnancy, sent by mail. Price $2. Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 617 Kearney St., near Commercial, San Francisco. Postoffice Box 252.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn to certificates dupe the unwary. Sixty of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco, are tradesmen, and to one too lazy to work at their trade. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, news [illegible] intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry; it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets. For, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them unless you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon [illegible] people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Doctor Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office that he is fully able to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.
